

College of Cross-Cultural and Multidisciplinary Studies presents

“english-TALK mon”

“english-TALKmon” is an on-going opportunity welcoming all Kumamoto University students to improve their English speaking abilities.

This program is a chance for the students to casually meet and interact with the College faculty, based on the needs of the students and the instructor’s specialties, including, but not limited to: learning more about taking courses offered in English by the College, public speaking, advice on writing, preparing for studying abroad.

No appointment is necessary, please visit classroom 1D, according to the schedule below.
